A massive earthquake in 1693 affected both towns, including the way the rebuilt sections were subsequently laid out. Historical attractions include a church dedicated to Saint Antoni and the ruins of several fortresses. The interior of Menorca is just as impressive, as you will discover on the way to Es Mercadal, another atmospheric whitewashed village. Its backdrop is El Toro, the island's highest point and supposedly its spiritual center. The mountain has been a pilgrimage site since the 13th century and a small church and sanctuary now sit atop the summit. After relaxing over a beverage and pastry at a bakery in Es Mercadal, you will continue south to Son Bou, the island's largest beach. As pretty as it is, the ruins of the early Christian basilica nearby may be even more noteworthy. Now enclosed by a protective wall, the stone basilica was probably constructed in the 5th century. Please note: This tour includes approximately 2.5 hours of walking. Tour not suitable for guests with limited mobility. Surfaces present inclines, cobblestones and dirt track. During the summer months, due to traffic and congestions at some sites, coach must be forced to park further away to the site and guests could be asked to walk some 10 minutes to reach the site. Guests have the option of staying on the bus if they prefer. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested. Tour not suitable to guests with limited mobility.

Experience the life of a sheep farmer and shepherd by visiting a characteristic farm that produces dairy products from highly prized Menorcan sheep. After departing from the pier, you will enjoy a scenic drive through the idyllic countryside to Son Triay (Ferrerries). Upon arriving, you will be welcomed at a family farm that tends a substantial herd of sheep. After an enlightening introduction to the family's lifestyle and the operation of the farm, you will walk into the fields where the sheep are grazing. The farm's Menorcan-bred sheep are milked to produce one of the island's few cheeses made with sheep's milk. Other cheeses usually contain lesser amounts of sheep's milk, which is then blended with raw or pasteurized cow's milk. You can taste the sea salt in Menorcan cheeses, the result of strong winds that soak the grazing fields with an ocean mist. The farmers may demonstrate how to milk sheep and shear them. Wool from Menorcan sheep has been prized for centuries, and the farmers will explain the attributes that make it so desirable. Following your immersion into shepherding and sheep farming, you will savor a tasting of farm-to-table dishes such as fresh-baked bread, cheeses, typical sausages and wine.

- Experience rural life on a farm that produces dairy products from Menorcan sheep.
- Watch demonstrations of sheep milking and shearing.
- Sample a variety of farm-to-table dishes including cheeses made from sheep's milk.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing. • Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

MAH-010 MENORCA BRITANNIA

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $99.00

Date: September 02, 2023 09:15 AM

Trace the British influence on Menorca by visiting one fort that the soldiers expanded while occupying the island and then sampling gin at distillery that the British opened. After departing from the pier, you will soon arrive at Fort Marlborough, an early 18th-century fort named for the British general John Churchill, the first Duke of Marlborough. Starting in 1713, the British ruled Menorca on and off for nearly 100 years, and their influence can still be seen throughout Mahon, especially in military fortifications. While meandering around Fort Marlborough, you will learn about its construction, which features a well-concealed entry tunnel, and how the Spanish partially destroyed the fort during a siege in 1782. After the visit of the fort, you will be transferred to Es Castell: situated on the Port of Maó, it is the most British town in Spain. It was built during the 18th century by the British engineers and formally known as Georgetown (in the honor of George III of Britain). If you take a look at the street plan you will note that the streets preserve the original cross-sectioned streets reflecting its British roots and that there is a parade square together with the British barracks, with Georgian architecture featuring bow windows and typical "guillotine" windows. After a guided visit at the square, you will have some free time to visit the small fishing port. Leaving Es Castell, as further evidence of the British influence, you will visit a gin distillery that they opened in the 18th century. While touring, be sure to notice the original copper still and then enjoy a sampling of the gin.

This tour involves approximately 3 hours of walking, some of which will include inclines, steps, uneven and cobbled ground. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair or suffer from claustrophobia. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

MAH-012 MENORCANSTYLE LOBSTER

Duration: 5.50 Hrs Tour Price: $139.00

Date: September 02, 2023 10:30 AM

OVERVIEW Dine on the signature Menorcan dish lobster stew, which originated on the island more than 100 years ago. Although most chefs have their own recipes for Caldereta de Langosta, they all revolve around the spiny lobsters caught in the surrounding waters. The venue for your culinary experience will be the restaurant Sa Llagosta in Fornells, a traditional whitewashed fishing village on the north shore. It is an appropriate setting as poor fishermen created the dish when lobsters were considered less desirable than fish. Although chef David Coca will prepare your lobster stew according to his own special recipe, it will feature a classic sofrito of tomato paste, onions and garlic as its base. A cheesecake-like flaó will be served for dessert. While traveling to and from Fornells, you will see some of Menorca's most naturally beautiful areas. They include Monte Toro, the island's highest peak, from which you will enjoy spectacular views.

- Enjoy the classic Menorcan dish lobster stew for lunch at a restaurant in Fornells.
- Gain insight into the history of the dish and how its recipe can vary from place to place.
- Admire Menorca's gorgeous scenery, especially from atop soaring Monte Toro.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE This tour includes approximately 1 hour of walking and standing. Any allergies must be noted when booking the tour. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the bus, and have a companion to assist them. Those with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their stamina and ability carefully. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.
